On the Cauchy problem for hyperbolic functional-differential equations

Adrian Karpowicz and Henryk Leszczyński

Abstract

We consider the Cauchy problem for a nonlocal wave equation in one dimension. We study the existence of solutions by means of bicharacteristics. The existence and uniqueness is obtained in $W_{loc}^{1,\infty}$ topology. The existence theorem is proved in a subset generated by certain continuity conditions for the derivatives.

Affiliation: Institute of Mathematics, University of Gdańsk